SCHOLARSHIPS

A UNIQUE FOUNDATION

Students in the College of Architecture, Arts and Humanities at Clemson University express their ideas in a kaleidoscope of forms – as buildings and landscapes; in music and drama; through the written word; and in photographs, paintings, prints, pottery and new media.

By uniting the arts and humanities with the disciplines of design and building, the college offers significant opportunities for students to imagine, explore and achieve.

The College of Architecture, Arts and Humanities is deeply committed to diversity, inclusion and equity. We aim to uplift all voices, as well as educate students on how to do the same in their professional and social lives.

THROUGH A WIDE ARRAY OF CLASSIC AND CUTTING-EDGE PROGRAMS, THE COLLEGE OF ARCHITECTURE, ARTS AND HUMANITIES OFFERS STUDENTS THE LIFE-CHANGING OPPORTUNITY TO ACHIEVE FULL POTENTIAL. STUDENTS ARE IMMERSSED IN BOTH ABSTRACT AND PRACTICAL ACTIVITIES THAT ADDRESS THE CHALLENGES OF EVOLVING LOCAL, STATE, NATIONAL AND GLOBAL PRIORITIES.

Educational opportunities span virtual and physical worlds, extending across the Fluid Campus from Clemson and Charleston in South Carolina to Genoa, Italy, and Barcelona, Spain.

In classrooms, studios, labs, practice rooms and as part of Creative Inquiry research projects, students engage directly with highly qualified professors and instructors. Core educational values include critical thinking, creativity, collaboration and communication.

The College of Architecture, Arts and Humanities encourages students to find their passion and find their voice.

FUELING THE NEXT GENERATION

The College of Architecture, Arts and Humanities is unique, and we want to offer these educational experiences to the best, brightest and most deserving students. But to do so, Clemson must find the means to attract elite high school graduates, following Thomas Green Clemson's vision for the betterment of our state and those we serve.

The cost of a college education is daunting for many, which is why private scholarship funding is crucial. Scholarships are the force that will bring exceptional students to our college – both those highly recruited and those who would otherwise be left behind because of financial barriers. Clemson's high standing and flourishing national reputation is attracting record numbers of undergraduate applications. Each incoming freshman class exceeds the previous one in academic accomplishment, with average SAT scores reaching historic highs year after year. Scholarships boost Clemson's national reputation and allow us to compete with our peers and recruit the best and brightest. The student body has become increasingly diverse, and initiatives are in place to continue that trend. The ability to recruit these students has an economic ripple effect across the College of Architecture, Arts and Humanities, Clemson University and the nation— creating a return on investment that is incalculable.

SCHOLARSHIPS ENABLE TRUE FREEDOM OF OPPORTUNITY FOR STUDENTS TO NOT JUST ATTEND CLEMSON BUT TO THRIVE HERE. WITH COMPREHENSIVE SCHOLARSHIPS, STUDENTS CAN MORE FULLY ENGAGE IN ACADEMIC EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES, TAKING ADVANTAGE OF THE BREADTH OF OPPORTUNITIES CLEMSON OFFERS.

Not only does this talent enhance the diversity of background and experience in Clemson's student body, it strengthens the Clemson brand, bolsters the high-achieving culture we strive to foster for our students and expands the reach of our alumni network after graduation.

A strong scholarship endowment unlocks the potential of all our students — creating productive citizens who will become the next generation of artists, construction managers, historians, actors and architects. But we can't do it without your support. Your commitment to students transforms their trajectories and gives them a foothold toward their future.

FUNDING THEIR FUTURE

Scholarships for students within Clemson University's College of Architecture, Arts and Humanities will provide future generations with access to not just a college education, but a top education. Clemson's alumni, friends and supporters are the financial partners our students need as they look to fuel their competitive drive through creativity, engagement and enrichment.

Need-based funding opens doors for deserving students who would not otherwise be able to afford a Clemson education, and prestigious merit-based awards attract the nation's top students. In turn, these students will contribute to the college and Clemson's academic reputation, success and impact in our state, nation and throughout the world.

We need your support. We need your conviction. We need your passionate belief in the dreams and goals and words that have brought us to where we are today. Your investment in scholarships will pave the way for future generations of Tigers. Together, we will create a better future for Clemson students. Together, we will raise the tide for our students for success at Clemson – and in life.
