FUELING THE NEXT GENERATION

We are providing the highest standard of education in the classroom, engaging students in transformational and meaningful ways and supporting faculty in their scientific endeavors as top educators and researchers.

Your support will be instrumental as the College of Behavioral, Social and Health Sciences continues to make a tangible difference in the lives of people and communities – beginning with our students.

We strive to offer these educational experiences to the best, brightest and most deserving students. But to do so, Clemson must find the means to attract our nation's elite high school graduates who are diverse, innovative and ready to tackle society's greatest challenges.

The cost of a college education is daunting for many, which is why private scholarship funding is crucial. Scholarships are the force that will bring exceptional students to our college – both those highly recruited and those who would otherwise be left behind because of financial barriers. Clemson's high standing and flourishing national reputation is attracting record numbers of undergraduate applications. Each incoming freshman class exceeds the previous one in academic accomplishment, with average SAT scores reaching historic highs year after year. Scholarships boost Clemson's national reputation and allow us to compete with our peers and recruit the best and brightest. The student body has become increasingly diverse, and initiatives are in place to continue that trend. The ability to recruit these students has an economic ripple effect across the College of Behavioral, Social and Health Sciences, Clemson University and the nation — creating a return on investment that is incalculable. We are creating the next generation of leaders.

Not only does this talent enhance the diversity of background and experience in Clemson's student body, it strengthens the Clemson brand, bolsters the high-achieving culture we strive to foster for our students and expands the reach of our alumni network after graduation.

A strong scholarship endowment unlocks the potential of all our students — creating productive citizens who will become the next generation of leaders. But we can't do it without your support. Your commitment to students transforms their trajectories and gives them a foothold toward their future.
